

LAHORE HIGH COURT

ASIA PACIFIC JUDICIAL COLLOQUIUM ON CLIMATE CHANGE: USING CONSTITUTIONS TO ADVANCE ENVIRONMENTAL RIGHTS AND ACHIEVE CLIMATE JUSTICE

Pearl Continental Hotel, Lahore, Pakistan, 26-27 February 2018

SPEAKERS' PROFILE

Name	Title	Bio
Hon. Mr. Justice Yaawar Ali 	Chief Justice, Lahore High Court	Honourable Mr. Justice Muhammad Yawar Ali was elevated to the Bench on 17 February 2010. He lectured at the Punjab University Law College, Lahore as a Visiting Lecturer during earlier years of practice. Conducted several cases of public importance before the High Court, the Supreme Appellate Court and the Supreme Court of Pakistan, while representing various clients including WAPDA, PIA, Pakistan Railways, National Bank of Pakistan, Muslim Commercial Bank Limited and the Federal Government as its counsel. Prior to joining the Judiciary, Chief Justice Ali served as Federal Counsel for Government of Pakistan, Additional Advocate General for Government of the Punjab (26.03.1995 to 01.08.1997) and Deputy Attorney General for Pakistan (01.08.1997 to 07.06.2006 and again 10.08.2007 to 11.02.2008). His reported cases prior to being elevated. PLD 1996 S.C 152. PLD 1996 S.C 274. 1996 MLD 01. 1996 PLC (CS) 678. PLD 1995 SC 546, 1996 SCMR 1510, 1999 SCMR 2744. 2005 SCMR 445. 2008 SCMR 1377. Chief Justice Ali graduated with BA from the University of the Punjab, and LL.B (Honours) from Leeds University in the United Kingdom.

Name	Title	Bio
Sunil Mitra	Deputy Country Director, Pakistan Resident Mission, Asian Development Bank	Mr. Mitra is a civil engineer from Singapore and have worked in various capacities on infrastructure projects in Singapore , Australia and the central west region. He has worked on transport projects in Pakistan form 2009. In his new capacity as Deputy Country Director of the Pakistan Resident Mission of ADB, Mr Mitra looks after programming of projects for all sectors ranging from infrastructure projects to health projects.
	Director, Law Division, UN Environment	Elizabeth has worked with the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) for almost two decades. Until June 2014, she was the Deputy Director and Coordinator, Operations and Programme Delivery Branch in the Division of Environmental Policy Implementation (DEPI). Prior to which, she was the Executive Secretary of the UNEP/Secretariat of the Convention on the Conservation of Migratory Species of Wild Animals (CMS), Acting Executive Secretary of the UNEP/ASCOBANS and Interim Executive Secretary of the UNEP/Gorilla Agreement all based in Bonn, Germany from January 2013 till July 2009. A lawyer and career diplomat with LLB (Hons) from the University of Dar-es-Salaam, Tanzania, LLM from Dalhousie University, Canada and Postgraduate Diploma in International Relations and Diplomacy (Summa Cum Laude) from the Centre of Foreign Relations and Diplomacy in Dar-es-Salaam, Tanzania. She has published several articles related to international environmental law, compliance and enforcement of conventions and developed, among others, a number of multilateral environmental agreements negotiation tools, handbooks and guidelines currently used by UNEP in its capacity building programmes. Elizabeth is a member of the World Commission on Environmental Law.
	Distinguished Professor of Law at Widener University Delaware Law School	James R. May is Distinguished Professor of Law at Widener University Delaware Law School. May is a member of the Global Network for Human Rights and the Environment and the American College of Environmental Lawyers. May is the author of Principles of Constitutional Environmental Law (2013), and coeditor of Shale Gas and the Future of Energy (2016), and Standards of Environmental Constitutionalism (forthcoming), and, along with Erin Daly, is the co-founder of the Dignity Rights Project, co-director of the Environmental Rights Institute, and coauthor or coeditor of Judicial Handbook on Environmental Constitutionalism (2nd Ed. 2018), New Frontiers in Global Environmental Constitutionalism (2017), Global Environmental Constitutionalism (Cambridge, 2015), and Environmental Constitutionalism (2014).

Name	Title	Bio
Justice Syed Mansoor Ali Shah 	Justice of the Supreme Court of Pakistan	Justice Syed Mansoor Ali Shah was elevated as a Judge of the Lahore High Court in 2009 and served as the Chief Justice of the Court from June, 2016 to February, 2018. He authored several judgments on constitutional law, human rights, administrative law, climate justice and environmental sustainability. He took keen interest in judicial and administrative reforms and spearheaded Alternate Dispute Resolution Centers (ADR), Criminal and Civil Model Courts, case management and court automation systems at the Lahore High Court and in the District Judiciary in Punjab. He helped re-engineer Punjab Judicial Academy in order to improve judicial training and capacity building for the judiciary and the ministerial staff. He lays special emphasis on research and played a foundational role in setting up the Lahore High Court Research Centre (LHCRC). Justice Shah has a Masters in Law from University of Cambridge, UK and a Masters in Economics from the University of the Punjab, Pakistan. He is an accredited mediator from CEDR, London. He was elevated as Judge, Supreme Court of Pakistan on 7th February 2018.
Hon. Ms. Justice Ayesha Malik 	Judge, Lahore High Court	Mrs. Justice Ayesha A. Malik studied law at the Pakistan College of Law and did her LLM from Harvard Law School. Elevated as Judge Lahore High Court, Lahore on 26.03.2012, Justice Ayesha A. Malik presently heads the Committee on Case Management at the Lahore High Court which oversees the pace of litigation and the use of technology for effective and speedy dispensation of cases. She also supervises the use of information technology in the courts, working on automation at the Lahore High Court and within the District Judiciary of Punjab. She is a member of the Board of the Punjab Judicial Academy overseeing the academic developments at the Academy and currently she is the Inspection Judge for the Environment Tribunals in Punjab and sits on the Green Bench of the Lahore High Court.
Professor John Knox 	UN Special Rapporteur on Human Rights and the Environment	John H. Knox is the first United Nations Special Rapporteur on human rights and the environment, and the Henry C. Lauerman Professor of International Law at Wake Forest University in the United States. As the Special Rapporteur, he conducts consultations around the world and publishes reports on the relationship between human rights and environmental protection. Information about the mandate is available at the website of the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights, www.ohchr.org, and at his personal website, www.srenvironment.org.

Name	Title	Bio
Parvez Hassan 	Chairperson of the Climate Change Commission, Pakistan	Dr. Parvez Hassan, President of the Pakistan Environmental Law Association, President Emeritus of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law, and Senior Advocate, Supreme Court of Pakistan.
Atty. Antonio Oposa Jr. 	Environmental lawyer	Tony Oposa is one of Asia's leading voices in the global arena of Environmental Law. His work is internationally known for the case where children, acting on behalf of future generations, took legal action to preserve the remaining old growth forests of the Philippines (1993). It is the case that illustrates the principle of intergenerational responsibility, now often known as the "Oposa Doctrine". In 2008, after a ten-year legal battle against twelve Philippine government agencies, he won an unprecedented case to compel these agencies to clean up Manila Bay. As an ordinary citizen, but working with elite enforcement operatives, Tony has led and organized some of the most daring enforcement operations against environmental crime syndicates. He is a lawyer (University of the Philippines) who holds a Master of Laws from the Harvard Law School, where he was the commencement speaker of his graduating class. He was given the Outstanding Young Man (TOYM) of the Philippines award (1993) and the highest United Nations award in the field of the Environment - the UNEP Global Roll of Honor (1997). He is the only Asian to receive the International Environmental Law Award from the Washington DC-based Center for International Environmental Law (CIEL). In 2009, he received the Ramon Magsaysay Award, Asia's highest award for public service. He was cited "for his path-breaking and passionate crusade to engage Filipinos in acts of enlightened citizenship that maximize the power of the Law to nurture the environment, for themselves, their children, and for generations yet unborn. He is a swimmer, scuba diver, sailor, tennis player, edible gardener, vocalist, painter, poet, storyteller, and a loving husband and father.

Name	Title	Bio
Rt. Hon. Lord Carnwath of Notting Hill 	Justice of the Supreme Court of the United Kingdom	Lord Carnwath has been a Justice of the UK Supreme Court since April 2012, having been a judge of the High Court and Court of Appeal since 1994. He had previously practised as a barrister specialising in planning and environmental law, including a period as Attorney-General to HRH the Prince of Wales (for which he was made a Companion of the Victorian Order). From 1999 to 2002 he was Chairman of the Law Commission for England and Wales, and from 2004 to 2012 he was the first Senior President of Tribunals, responsible for reform of the specialist tribunal system. Since 2004 he has worked as an adviser to the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) on judicial training, and is currently a member of their International Advisory Council on Environmental Justice.
Hon. Mr. Justice Tassaduq Jilani 	Former Chief Justice, Supreme Court of Pakistan	Justice Jilani is currently Judge ad hoc at the International Court of Justice, The Hague, and previously served as the 21st Chief Justice of Pakistan (2013 – 2014). He was instrumental in encouraging Pakistan to accede to the Hague Convention and has written extensively on child abduction and custody issues. He conducts many seminars and is called by the Ministry of Law to help with their decisions and implementation processes. Previous Positions: 21st Chief Justice, Supreme Court of Pakistan, 2013 – 2014 Co-Chair, The Hague Conference Working Party on Mediation in Family Law, The Hague Conference, 2008 – 2015 Hague Network Judge, International Hague Network, 2010– 2014 Judge, Supreme Court of Pakistan, 2004 – 2013 Judge, Lahore High Court, 1994 – 2004 Advocate, Office of the Advocate General Punjab, 1993 – 1994 Additional Advocate, Office of the Advocate, General Punjab 1989 – 1993 Assistant Advocate, Office of the Advocate, General Punjab 1979 – 1989 Education/Training: MA, Political Science, Forman Christian College, 1970 LL.B., Law, University of Punjab, 1973 Memberships: Gymkhana Club, Islamabad Club, Honorary CoChair of The World Justice Project Publications: “Lord Justice Thorpe & International Family Law”, International Family Law, 2013 “The Challenge of Judicial Independence and The Experience in Pakistan” The Culture of Judicial Independence, 2012 “Impunity & The Emerging Patterns of International Justice” Counter Terrorism International Law & Practice, 2012

Name	Title	Bio
		“Defending the Constitution Under the Rule of Law”, The International Lawyer, 2009 “Should a Child Ever Marry” International Family Law, 2007 “Democracy & Islam: An Odyssey in Braving the TwentyFirst Century” Brigham Young University Law Review, 2006 “Discrimination – Pakistan: The Right to Marry”, Journal of the Society for Advanced Legal Studies, 2004 “Implementing the Right to Marry – A View from the Pakistan Courts” International Family Law, 2001
Justice Brian Preston 	Chief Judge of the Land and Environment Court of New South Wales, Australia	Justice Preston is the Chief Judge of the Land and Environment Court of New South Wales, Australia. He has authored over 100 publications on environmental law, administrative and criminal law. Justice Preston is an Adjunct Professor at the University of Sydney and at Western Sydney University having lectured in post-graduate environmental law for over 26 years.
Irum Ahsan 	Senior Counsel, Law and Policy Reform, Asian Development Bank	Irum Ahsan completed her legal education from the London School of Economics and Political Science. Before joining the Asian Development Bank (ADB), she practiced corporate law (both contentious and non-contentious matters) in Pakistan. In addition, Irum taught law at various prestigious institutions. At ADB, she is working in the Office of the General Counsel where over the last 10 years she has been advising on multi-sector projects for inclusive growth including several corporate finance transactions. Irum is currently leading the law and policy reform (LPR) program. Her LPR work mainly focuses on areas such as environmental and climate change adjudication and enforcement, legal literacy for women, and corporate governance. ADB’s LPR work is based on the premise that a functioning legal system – anchored on the Rule of Law is an essential element of sustainable development. Her work led to the establishment of 5 green courts/benches in different countries, the Asian Judges Network on Environment, the first such network in the world, and Asia’s first court for gender-based violence cases in Pakistan. Irum has also organized several symposiums for Chief justices on environmental and climate change laws and presented her work at numerous international forums. She is a committee member of ADB’s governance and gender thematic groups. Irum is an active advocate for gender consciousness and for women’s rights and passionately steers the gender discussions in ADB.
Justice Ali Baqir Najafi	Judge of the Lahore High Court	Completed basic qualification from Govt. Muslim Model High School, Urdu Bazar, Lahore, did his B.Sc. from the Government College, Lahore. Joined the Punjab University Law College Lahore and obtained LL.B Degree in 1989.

Name	Title	Bio
		Joined the legal profession in the same year at Lahore and after completion of apprenticeship joined his father, Late Ali Huzoor Najafi, Advocate Supreme Court, enrolled as an Advocate of High Courts in 1990 and subsequently as an Advocate of Supreme Court of Pakistan. Taught in Punjab University Law College Lahore for 12 years and other Private Law Colleges for 18 years and remained as Internal & External Examiner Punjab University Lahore for a long time. During this time he taught Constitutional Law, International Law, Islamic Law, Land Laws and Minor Acts. Remained as Editor of Law Page, The News and also contributed legal & other law related articles in Magazines and Newspapers. During the course of legal profession career conducted a large number of cases before the Lower Courts, Federal Shariat Court, High Court and Honorable Supreme Court of Pakistan. Conducted more than 1000 cases including some reported judgments during 20 years standing in profession at Bar, on the sides of Constitution, Civil, Criminal, Corporate, Banking, Customs, Narcotics, Anti-Corruption, Labour, Immigration, and Islamic Laws including Private International Law. Also conducted the cases of public interest litigation and human rights. He has participated and represented in many Law Conferences, Peace Conferences, Seminars and read research papers.
Professor Ben Boer 	Emeritus Professor of the University of Sydney and National Distinguished Professor at Wuhan University Law School.	Ben Boer was appointed Emeritus Professor of the University of Sydney in 2008. In 2011 he was appointed as National Distinguished Professor at Wuhan University Law School in Hubei Province China, in its Research Institute of Environmental Law. He now spends some 3 months per year in Wuhan. Between 2006 and 2008, he was the international Co-Director of the IUCN (International Union for the Conservation of Nature) Academy of Environmental Law and Visiting Professor based at the University of Ottawa. Formerly, Ben was Professor in Environmental Law, University of Sydney (1997 -2008) and the Corrs Chambers Westgarth Professor of Environmental Law, University of Sydney (1992-1996). Prior to that, at Macquarie University, he was Lecturer, Senior Lecturer and Associate Professor, School of Law (1979-1991) and part-time Lecturer in the Graduate School of the Environment, and Lecturer, Department of Legal Studies, La Trobe University (1974-1979). He was appointed as Deputy Chair of the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law in 2012, a position he held until 2016. He became a member of the Australian Academy of Law in 2016. He continues to be a member of the International Council of Environmental Law, based in Geneva.
Sumudu Atapattu	Director of Research Centers and Senior Lecturer at the	Sumudu Atapattu is the Director of Research Centers and Senior Lecturer at the University of Wisconsin Law School. She is affiliated with UW-Madison's Nelson Institute for Environmental Studies and the Center for South Asia and is the Executive Director of the campus-wide interdisciplinary Human Rights Program. She serves as the Lead Counsel for Human Rights at the Center for International Sustainable Development Law

Name	Title	Bio
	University of Wisconsin Law School.	based in Montreal, Canada, and serves as affiliated faculty at the Raoul Wallenberg Institute for Human Rights and Humanitarian Law, Sweden.
Justice Antonio Benjamin 	Justice of the High Court of Brazil	Justice Antonio Herman Benjamin is the Secretary General of the UN Environment International Advisory Council on Environmental Justice since 2012. Appointed Justice of the National High Court of Brazil in 2006 by President Luiz Inácio Lula da Silva, Professor Antonio Benjamin was a career Assistant Attorney General of the State of São Paulo for over twenty years, where he headed the Environmental Protection Division for four years. Professor Benjamin was the founding President of both the Brazilian Consumer Law and Policy Institute and the Law for a Green Planet Institute. He is a former President of the Brazilian Fulbright Alumni Association, a member of the UN Secretary General Legal Expert Groups on Crimes against the Environment, and for many years a member of the Brazilian Environmental Council (CONAMA), first appointed by President Fernando Henrique Cardoso and later re-appointed by President Luiz Inácio Lula da Silva. At the international level, he served as co-president of the International Network for Environmental Compliance and Enforcement (INECE). Currently, he is the chair of the Brazil-US Law Society and the IUCN World Commission on Environmental Law. Justice Benjamin is a professor at the Catholic University of Brasília School of Law and a visiting professor of the University of Texas, School of Law at Austin since 1994. He received his LL.B. from the Federal University of Rio de Janeiro, his LL.M. from the University of Illinois and his PhD from the Federal University of Rio Grande do Sul. He is the founding President and emeritus editor-in-chief of the Brazilian Consumer Law Review and the Brazilian Environmental Law Review. He has co-drafted several major Brazilian statutes, including the 1990 Consumer Protection Code, the 1992 Anti-Corruption Act, the 1994 Competition Act, the 1998 Crimes Against the Environment Act, the 2012 Forest Code, the 2006 Forest Concession Act and the 2006 Atlantic Forest Act. Professor Benjamin has published over thirty books and articles in Brazil and abroad. During the 2012 Rio+20 Conference, he served as Secretary-General of the UN Environment World Congress on Justice, Governance and Law for Environmental Sustainability.

Name	Title	Bio
Professor Denise Antolini 	Associate Dean for Academic Affairs, The William S. Richardson School of Law, University of Hawaii and Deputy Chair of the World Commission on Environmental Law	Professor Denise E. Antolini has served as the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs since 2011. She joined the Law School faculty in 1996 and directed the nationally recognized Environmental Law Program for several years. Since 2006, she has spearheaded the Law School Building Excellence Project. She serves on the State Water Commission Nominating Committee (2013), was the inaugural Chair of the Honolulu City Council's Clean Water and Natural Lands Commission, and is past Chair of the State Environmental Council. Her courses have included torts, environmental law, environmental litigation, domestic ocean and coastal law, and legal writing. She received the 2006 University of Hawai'i Board of Regents' Excellence in Teaching Medal. She served as Chair of the American Association of Law School's Environmental Law Section and, from 2005 until 2008, was on the ABA's Standing Committee on Environmental Law. Dean Antolini is past chair of the Hawai'i State Bar Association's Natural Resources Section and was selected by Hawai'i Women Lawyers as the 2002 recipient of the Distinguished Community Service Award. She graduated from Princeton University in 1982; obtained a Masters in Public Policy at UC Berkeley (1985) and concurrently a J.D. from Boalt Hall School of Law, UC Berkeley in 1986, where she was editor-in-chief of Ecology Law Quarterly. After a two-year federal district court clerkship in Washington, D.C., she spent eight years practicing public interest law with the Sierra Club Legal Defense Fund (now Earthjustice) in Seattle and Honolulu, serving as Managing Attorney of the Honolulu office from 1994 until 1996. Dean Antolini litigated several major citizen suit environmental cases involving coastal pollution, water rights, endangered species, environmental impact statements, and Native Hawaiian rights. She served on the legal team that represented the plaintiffs in the PASH (traditional and customary Native Hawaiian rights) decision and was lead counsel on the legal team for the Windward parties in the early stages of the Waiāhole Water case (1993-1995).
Professor Erin Daly 	Professor of Law at Widener University Delaware Law School and Director of the Global Network for Human Rights and the Environment	Erin Daly is Professor of Law at Widener University Delaware Law School and Director of the Global Network for Human Rights and the Environment (GNHRE). She is the author of Dignity Rights: Constitutions, Courts, and the Worth of the Human Person and co-author of Reconciliation in Divided Societies: Finding Common Ground. With Professor James R. May, she has co-authored or co-edited numerous books and articles on environmental constitutionalism including Global Environmental Constitutionalism and New Frontiers in Environmental Constitutionalism. She and Professor May co-direct the Dignity Rights Project at Delaware Law School.

Name	Title	Bio
Justice Jawad Hassan 	Judge of the Lahore High Court	Justice Jawad Hassan is the Judge of the Lahore High Court and adjudicating mostly constitutional cases including environmental matters as the Green Judge by delivering some important landmark judgments and also regularly teaching the environmental law to the Judicial Officers at the Federal as well as the Provincial Judicial Academies. Before his elevation to the Bench, Justice Hassan after obtaining LL.M in environmental law from Pace University, School of Law, New York has extensively worked in environmental law by drafting the laws, being the lead counsel & amicus curiae, authoring books and articles, speaking at international conferences and introducing/teaching the subject at various educational institutions in Pakistan.
Judge Fleur Kingham 	President of the Land Court of Queensland	Fleur Kingham was appointed the President of the Land Court of Queensland in August 2016, after serving 10 years as a Judge of the District, Children's and Planning and Environment Courts of Queensland. Prior to those appointments, she served 6 years as Deputy President of the Land and Resources Tribunal. Before her judicial career, she was a commercial litigation and environmental lawyer; advised governments on environmental and resources law and was the Director of the Masters of Environmental Management at the University of Queensland. She mediated complex disputes, including indigenous land and governance issues. In 2009, Judge Kingham was appointed the inaugural Deputy President of the Queensland Civil and Administrative Tribunal. In 2011, she was awarded the Queensland Law Society Agnes McWhinney Award for her contribution to making justice more accessible to the community and bridging the gap between land and resources issues and Indigenous communities. In July 2016, she was awarded an Honorary Doctorate by Griffith University.
Marlene Oliver 	Environment Commissioner of Environment Court of New Zealand (retired)	Ms Oliver is from New Zealand and has a background of more than 40 years working as an environmental management professional. She served for 12 years as a full-time Environment Commissioner on the specialist Environment Court of New Zealand. She is a qualified mediator with extensive experience in environmental mediation and facilitation. Most recently she was Professor Environmental Management at Royal Thimphu College, Royal University of Bhutan, in Bhutan.

Name	Title	Bio
Justice YA Tan Sri Dato' Sri Azahar bin Mohamed 	Judge, Federal Court of Malaysia	Justice Azahar bin Mohamed obtained his LLB degree from University of Malaya in 1980 and LLM from London School of Economics in 1987. Justice Azahar has had a long career with the Judicial and Legal services since 1980. His Lordship has held several positions, amongst them are Senior Assistant Registrar, High Court; Deputy Public Prosecutor; Senior Federal Counsel, Anti-Corruption Agency; Legal Adviser, Royal Customs and Excise Department Malaysia; Deputy Registrar of Companies; Head of Prosecution, Attorney General's Chambers and Head of Civil Division, Attorney General's Chambers. On 1st August 2004, Justice Azahar Mohamed was appointed as a Judicial Commissioner and served the High Court at Johor Bahru. On 27th July 2006, His Lordship was elevated as a High Court Judge of Malaya. On 11th May 2011, His Lordship was elevated as a Judge, Court of Appeal. On 12th September 2014, His Lordship was elevated as a Federal Court Judge. On 9th October – 31st December 2015, His Lordship attended Inns of Court Fellowship at the Institute Advanced Legal Studies, University of London under the auspices of IALS, Middle Temple, Inner Temple, Gray's Inn and Lincoln's Inn.
Saima A Khawaja 	Partner at Progressive Advocates & Legal Consultants	Saima A Khawaja is a practicing lawyer and partner at Progressive Advocates & Legal Consultants. Environmental Law is one of her main areas of interest and she has been involved in analysing and drafting EIA Regulations, Administrative Penalty Rules and Water Conservation Law (for SAARC countries). She has done number of litigations challenging environmental issues in Pakistan. She is also involved in development and policy work along with academia presently faculty member at the Punjab Judicial Academy.
Professor Qin Tianbao	Director of the Research Institute of Environmental Law and Associate Dean for the	Prof. QIN Tianbao is a National Changjiang Scholar and LuoJia Professor of Law, and serves as the Director of the Research Institute of Environmental Law (RIEL) and the Associate Dean for the School of Law, Deputy Director of the Research Center of the Supreme Court of China on Environmental-related Cases, Wuhan

Name	Title	Bio
	School of Law, Wuhan University	University; Editor-in-Chief of the Chinese Journal of Environmental Law; Member of the Compliance Committee of the Nagoya Protocol on ABS.
Andy Raine 	Regional Coordinator for Environmental Law and Governance, UN Environment	Andy is UN Environment's Regional Coordinator for Environmental Law and Governance, and is based in Bangkok. In this role he works with governments and legal stakeholders across the Asia Pacific region on a wide range of environmental law and governance issues. He has worked in legal roles with the United Nations for the last ten years, based in both New York and Bangkok. Prior to his positions in the UN, Andy worked as an environmental lawyer in leading international law firms in both London (at Linklaters) and Melbourne (at Freehills), advising governments, banks and corporates around the world on a wide range of environmental law issues and transactions. Andy has a Master of Laws (Environmental Law and Policy) with Distinction from University College London, as well as a Bachelor of Laws (Hons) and a Bachelor of Business (Management) from the University of Queensland. He is a member of the World Commission on Environmental Law, and has published numerous articles on environmental law and governance. Andy is married with two children that keep him very busy.
Mr. Nils Henrick Rolf Ring 	Deputy Director, Raoul Wallenberg Institute	Rolf Ring is the Deputy Director and Head of the Department for Administration and Finance. Prior to joining the Institute, he worked as a Project Co-ordinator for the Swedish Red Cross and served as an assistant to the Chair in International Law at the Faculty of Law, Lund University. He has experiences from designing, managing and monitoring international programmes as well as evaluations. Rolf holds a LL.M. from Lund University.

Name	Title	Bio
Justice Muhammad Anawaarul Haq 	Judge, Lahore High Court	Justice Muhammad Anawaarul Haq was elevated as Judge of the Lahore High Court on 19 February 2010. He started his professional career in Lahore in 1980. After constitution of Rawalpindi Bench of Lahore High Court shifted to High Court, Rawalpindi Bench and simultaneously started practice in District Courts Jhelum. He remained unopposed Member Punjab Bar Council from 2004 to 2009. Remained Legal Advisor (Panel Advocate) District Council Jhelum, Habib Bank Limited, Allied Bank Limited, WAPDA, Pakistan Post Office, Alliance Textile Mills, Municipal Committee Pind Dadan Khan, Pakistan Tele Communication Authority and U Mobile Phone Company. Remained Special District Government Pleader and Special District Public Prosecutor from 1986-1992. He delivered part time lectures in Urdu Law College and Jinnah Law College, Jhelum. Justice Haq joined the Human Rights Commission of Pakistan (HRCP) and remained its National Council Member (1992-1997). He attended Hague Forum Training on International Criminal Law 17.04.2012 to 27.04.2012 in Hague, Netherlands. Justice Haq's current roles include: Inspection Judge Sargodha, Sialkot, Jhelum, D.G. Khan and Faisalabad Districts; Administrative Judge for securities of Lahore High Court and subordinate Courts in Punjab; Incharge Judge of Planning and Development Lahore High Court; and Member Syndicate King Edward Medical University, Lahore.